Research and Partnership Included:

Funding provided by Coca-Cola North America (CCNA) or The Coca-Cola Company's U.S. corporate headquarters to entities based in the U.S. or Canada for research relating to dietary intake, nutrition, and health or to physical activity; and Funding provided by Coca-Cola North America (CCNA), The Coca-Cola Foundation or The Coca-Cola Company's U.S. corporate headquarters to entities based in the U.S. for health and well-being programs and communications activities conducted in the U.S. We have made a good-faith effort to disclose all the funding that meets the inclusion criteria. If we have unintentionally omitted something that meets those criteria, we will disclose it in one of our future updates, which we plan to provide every twelve months.

Research and Partnerships Excluded:

Research by entities not based in the U.S. or Canada and not funded by Coca-Cola North America (CCNA) or The Coca-Cola Company's U.S. corporate headquarters; Programs and activities conducted outside the U.S. and not funded by Coca-Cola North America (CCNA), The Coca-Cola Foundation or by The Coca-Cola Company's U.S. corporate headquarters; Research on ingredients, packaging, products or brands that is not related to dietary intake, nutrition and health or to physical activity; Research and development on new ingredients, packaging, products or brands; and Payments to third-party service providers for media services, advertising and logistics in support of the "Partnerships" for health and wellbeing programs and communications activities listed.

For purposes of this list, we use the term 'partnership' in an informal sense, referring to our relationship with entities based in the U.S. that have received funding from Coca-Cola North America (CCNA), The Coca-Cola Foundation or The Coca-Cola Company's U.S. corporate headquarters to support their health and well-being programs and communications activities conducted in the U.S.
